

Role of Iran's late president, foreign minister in Palestine

By Robert Inlakesh

Journalist, writer

Iran's president Ebrahim Raisi and foreign minister Hossein Amir-Abdollahian will be replaced following their shock helicopter crash deaths in the Varzeghan region.

While Iranians poured to the streets in their millions across the country to mourn the passing of the two, along with other senior officials, and the United Nations Security Council (UNSC) held a moment of silence, their records on the question of Palestine are of great importance to highlight.

Special Issue
on Passing of
President Seyyed Ebrahim Raisi and his companions